PROJECTS

SENTINEL OPS | AI-Driven Attack Surface Management

- Designed a backend-based cyber asset management system utilizing Retrieval-Augmented Generation (RAG) for cross-referencing live infrastructure scans against extensive CVE databases and security documentation.
 - Standardized a vulnerability prioritization engine utilizing ChromaDB for vector embeddings to enable semantic search and fast threat analysis.
 - Crafted a scalable architecture utilizing FastAPI and PostgreSQL for live asset tracking and computerized security reporting.

SPECTRA | Encrypted Traffic Analyzer

- Improved a network security solution that analyses encrypted network traffic for suspicious activities without the need for packet decryption.
 - Leveraged Python and sophisticated machine learning models for inspecting packet metadata and flow-based characteristics to differentiate legitimate traffic from potential threats.
 - Crafted a high-performance architecture for real-time monitoring of network traffic for potential threats.
 - Overcame limitations of traditional deep packet inspection techniques by implementing a privacy-preserving framework for detecting potential threats.
